

INTERN FOR GASM.ORG

Gasm.org is hiring interns in the departments listed below.

All interns must be available to work at least one full day a week. All applicants must be comfortable with sex, sexuality, and all topics involving the pleasure space.

Editorial Interns

Editorial interns will work closely with the gasm.org staff to develop and hone their writing skills. Interns that demonstrate promise may be presented with opportunities to contribute articles to the site. All editorial interns must be able to brainstorm ideas on the fly, be familiar with AP style, be highly organized, and be great with deadlines. Editorial intern duties include basic editing, brainstorming concepts, pleasure research, and of course -- writing.

Interested applicants should send an email to krissy@gasm.org with two examples of their writing and a letter highlighting why they are right for the position.

Interns can telework for this position, and must be available one full day a week.

Social Media Interns

Social media interns are responsible for developing and maintaining a strong, positive web presence for gasm.org. All social media interns must have a sharp wit, strong writing skills, a sense of humor, and be great with deadlines. A sex positive attitude is a MUST. Interns must be familiar with Twitter, Tumblr, Pinterest, Facebook, Instagram, and Reddit. Knowledge of Wordpress is a plus. Social media intern duties include keeping track of online trends, maintaining a log of contacts for gasm.org, researching potential connections within the pleasure space, maintaining social platforms, and creating and scheduling posts for social sites.

Interested applicants should send an email to krissy@gasm.org with one example of their writing ability and any links to their social media sites. They should also include a letter highlighting why they're right for the position.

Interns can telework for this position, and must be available one full day a week.

Production Interns

Production interns will work closely with the gasm.org staff in order to gain experience in all stages of production. Interns must have access to Final Cut Pro X, have a flexible weekend schedule, and have proven on-set production experience. Production intern duties include basic editing, brainstorming concepts, and assisting with on-set shoots for gasm.org.

Interested applicants should send an email to krissy@gasm.org with examples from their reel. They must also include a letter explaining why they're right for the position.

Video interns must be available to work in San Francisco or New York.
